A Horse to Ride

Dear Diary,

It is a busy day for me. I have an essay to finish before going to school. Then Lisa and I have a pot to paint for our craft project. Lisa has some colours to use. When that finishes, I have a poem to learn for my test. After that, I have a few books to return to the library and then eat my lunch. Around 12 noon, there is a hobby class, so I have puzzles to solve with my other classmates. They have a new set to try. In the afternoon, I have a dress to return to the tailor for alterations. She has a machine to alter dresses. I have a list to complete and then I can return home. I will share my day events when I come back!

Riley
